

MSc EURAMA - PROVISIONAL COURSES

S2 EURAMA Univ. Wageningen – NL

36 Credits (usually 6 courses of 6 credits each) must be taken during the 2nd Semester in Wageningen from January to June.

According to the chosen SPECIALISATION, some compulsory courses must be taken. The choice of the courses is limited to the appreciation of the Responsible EURAMA in Wageningen, Animal Sciences Group.

Here are some of the potential courses:

CORE COURSES according to Specialisations

Grassland science
Animal nutrition & physiology
Quality of animal products
Nutrients dynamics
Feed technology
Adaptation physiology II
Behaviour & environment
Economics of animal health & food safety
Health, welfare & management
Modern statistics for the life sciences
Quantitative veterinary epidemiology
Etc...

OPTIONAL COURSES

Advanced management & marketing
Communication & policy making
Globalization & sustainability
Supply chain management
Agricultural business economics
Entrepreneurship & intrapreneurship in life sciences
Agricultural & rural policy analysis
Technology, innovation & strategy
Financial Business Management
Risk communication
Human Resource management
Strategic planning in forest and nature conservation
Etc...

NB : details to be updated according to the current academic year

More details on the webpage: <http://www.wageningenur.nl/en/Education-Programmes/prospective-master-students/MSc-programmes/MSc-Animal-Sciences/Specialisations.htm>